

Columbia Basin Non-native Invasive Fish Species Symposium Agenda

November 18 & 19
The Davenport Hotel
Spokane, WA

November 18

9:00 Welcome and Introductions

Charlie Holderman, Kootenai Tribe of Idaho; Alison Squier, Moderator

9:10 Overview, Challenges, Nomenclature and Objectives

Joe Maroney, Kalispel Tribe of Indians, Director of Fisheries and Water Resources

9:50 Ecological and Biological Impacts

Dr. Beth Sanderson, NOAA Fisheries, Ecosystem Analysis Program Manager

10:50 Break

11:00 Economic Impacts

Dr. John Duffield, Adjunct Research Professor, University of Montana

11:50 Lunch

1:00 Political/Legal Impacts

Dr. Chris Dionigi, Deputy Director of National Invasive Species Council

2:00 Roundtable: Social Impacts

Alison Squier, Moderator

Tom Karier, Northwest Power and Conservation Council; Beth Sanderson, NOAA Fisheries; John Duffield, University of Montana; Chris Dionigi, National Invasive Species Council; Joe Maroney, Kalispel Tribe of Indians

3:00 Adjourn

November 19

On this day, the symposium is held concurrently with the Lake Roosevelt Forum Conference. For full conference agenda, go to www.lrf.org/conf.

10:30 Climate Change as a Variable to Natural Resource Management

Keynote: Charlie Luce, U.S. Forest Service

Moderator: Allyson Beall King, Washington State University; Derek Sandison, WA Department of Ecology; Bryan Horsburgh, U.S. Bureau of Reclamation; Nancy Stephan, Bonneville Power Administration; Lynn Helbrecht, Washington Department of Fish and Wildlife

12:00 Lunch Keynote - U.S. Entity Columbia River Treaty Recommendation

Dave Ponganis, U.S. Army Corps of Engineers, Regional Director of Programs

1:15 Aliens and Invaders in our Fishery:

Best Practices and Projects to manage, suppress, and eradicate - Part I

John Walrath, University of Idaho Master Student: "Seasonal Food Habits of Northern Pike and Smallmouth Bass"

Jason Olson, Kalispel Tribe of Indians, Fisheries Project Manager: "Cee Cee Ah Creek Brook Trout Eradication with Rotenone"

Nick Bean, Kalispel Tribe of Indians, Fisheries Biologist III: "Pend Oreille River Northern Pike Suppression"

3:00 Aliens and Invaders in our Fishery:

Best Practices and Projects to manage, suppress, and eradicate - Part II

Shay Wolverter, Colville Confederated Tribes Fish Biologist II: "Non-native Fish Removal in the Sanpoil River Arm"

Justin Seibert, Spokane Tribe of Indians: "Use of harvest simulation models for Silver Carp populations in several Midwestern U.S. rivers: Implications for management of invasive populations"

Final presentation being determined

Registration Required: Go to www.lrf.org/conf. No cost for Day 1. Conference registration cost for Day 2 is $75 for individual. Group discount is available.

UCUT members: Please register through your fisheries department.

2206 S. Sherman St, Spokane WA 99203 #509-535-7084 www.lrf.org/conf